

Oncology Nurse Cath Griffiths discusses patient management

Cath Griffiths has been an oncology nurse for almost 30 years and has extensive experience in managing breast cancer patients who have been taking NERLYNX within trial programs. In this piece, she provides her advice on optimal patient management. Click on the image banner above to play the video.